

THE NATIONAL HOUSE PROJECT

Meet The National House Project Team!

Mark Warr – Chief Executive Officer

E: mark@thehouseproject.org

Mark has managed child protection systems, looked after children's systems and safeguarding partnerships at a strategic level within Local Authorities. With a commitment to developing a learning organisation and working collaboratively with partners and stakeholders, he is keen to both develop and scale the House Project approach and use it a catalyst for wider sector transformation.

Sue Hammersley – Director

E: sue@thehouseproject.org

Sue has managed safeguarding and looked-after children services at a strategic level in Local Authorities for over 16 years. In addition to assuring the quality of the House Project approach Sue leads on stakeholder engagement with a commitment to collaborative working so as to add value to young people's experience of leaving care.

Tanya Greppellini – Executive Support Manager

E: tanya@thehouseproject.org

Tanya is an experienced and professional Executive Support Manager with 8 years' experience in providing efficient, effective and confidential support to senior management. Her experience of working in a service that is dedicated to improving outcomes for children and young people has given her a passion for the work she does and inspires her to achieve excellence.

Rosie Blackett – CLNM Participation and Development Worker

E: rosie@thehouseproject.org

Rosie was previously a police officer and spent 8 years working with young people involved in criminal exploitation. Rosie has been at the forefront of developing new ideas designed to improve outcomes for care leavers, whether in higher education or the criminal justice system and is at her happiest developing professional friendships that have young people at the heart of them. Rosie is the lead for Care Leavers National Movement and is care experienced herself.

Becky Reynolds – Practice Lead

E: becky@thehouseproject.org

Becky is a qualified social worker and approved mental health professional (AMHP). As a Principal Social Worker Becky has supported practitioners to continuously learn and develop and is keen to develop this aspect of her role at NHP. Becky is excited to be working on the GM collaborative and leads on NHP support to projects in Scotland.

Kelly Mottram – Practice Lead

E: kelly@thehouseproject.org

Kelly is a qualified social worker with 9 years' experience of managing children in care and care leaver services. Kelly is experienced in supporting and providing reflective supervision to professionals in order to ensure that needs and outcomes of children and young people remain of paramount consideration. Kelly is working with the West Midlands ADCS to develop more House Projects across the region.

Liz Tittley- Fundraising and Partnerships Manager

E: liz@thehouseproject.org

Liz spent the first 14 years of her career working in Local Authorities and joins us having spent the last 25 years working in the third sector. Liz has experience in bid writing, corporate and major donors and community fundraising. She also has expertise in relationship and partnership management and is a full member of the Chartered Institute of Fundraising.

Luke Fox – Business Admin Apprentice

E: lukef@thehouseproject.org

Luke is committed to ensuring that the voice of young people drives practice. As an apprentice to the Rotherham House Project and a National Leaving Care Benchmarking Forum champion he was instrumental in developing CLNM. He currently supports CLNM by both providing administrative support and ensuring that it amplifies the voice of young people leaving care.

Marshall Rowlands – Business Admin Apprentice

E: marshall@thehouseproject.org

Marshall is a young professional who has used his experience of being in, and leaving care, to improve the way in which services support other young people to leave care. Marshall has firsthand experience of the House Project; being involved in the establishment of House Projects in Stoke which led to him moving into his first home. To this day he remains a valued member of his House Project community and a founder of CLNM.
